99. The actions and omissions of Defendants DIOCESE, IMMACULATA and FSSJ, as described above, have interrupted or interfered with the health, safety, and welfare of the general public.

101. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants' conduct, the Plaintiff has suffered special and individualized harms separate and distinct from the harms suffered by the public at large.

102. The harm suffered by the Plaintiff is the exact type of harm that one would expect to result from the Defendants' acts and omissions.

103. 105. The conduct of Defendant DIOCESE, IMMACULATA and FSSJ was especially injurious to Plaintiff's health, safety and welfare as because Plaintiff was sexually assaulted by Defendant DIOCESE's agent, Defendant MCGUIRE.

106. The conduct of Defendants DIOCESE, IMMACULATA and FSSJ was further especially injurious to Plaintiff's health, safety and welfare in that when Plaintiff discovered Defendants DIOCESE, IMMACULATA and FSSJ's conduct, Plaintiff experienced mental, emotional and/or physical distress that she had been the victim of Defendants' conduct.

114. Defendants knowingly, willingly, and intentionally failed to report reasonable suspicion of abuse by Defendant MCGUIRE of children in their care.

115. Defendants’ intentional act of nondisclosure allowed Defendant MCGUIRE to continue abusing children in Defendants care, an injury that Defendants were substantially certain would occur.

116. This intentional act necessarily produced the harm that resulted.

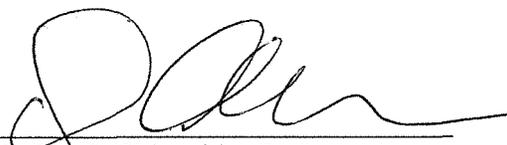

117. Defendants’ actions endangered Plaintiff’s safety and caused her to fear for her own safety.

118. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants’ actions, which included but were not limited to, negligent and/or grossly negligent conduct, Plaintiff suffered the severe injuries and damages described herein, including but not limited to, mental and emotional distress.

119. By reason of the foregoing, Defendants, jointly, severally and/or in the alternative, are liable to Plaintiff for compensatory damages, and for punitive damages, together with interest and costs.
